Columbus Blue Jackets vs. Buffalo Sabres Saturday April 9th, 2011 7:00 PM Nationwide Arena

The Columbus Blue Jackets are Ohio's only National Hockey League Franchise. This season marks the team's 10th in the NHL and the Jackets are hoping to celebrate by returning to the playoffs for the second time in three years. This year's team is lead by stars like Rick Nash and Ohio State's own R.J. Umberger. This is the last game of the 2010-2011 NHL season and the Jackets will be looking to use it to build momentum for the playoffs!

Their opponent on the night is the perennial Eastern Conference power, Buffalo Sabres. The Sabres are led by USA Hockey goalie Ryan Miller and they will be looking to advance deep into the playoffs again. Come out and see a night of fast-paced and exciting hockey as these two regional rivals meet in the penultimate game of the regular season!

Nationwide Arena

Built in 2000 Nationwide Arena is the home of the National Hockey League's Columbus Blue Jackets and a wide variety of world-class entertainment events. In 2004, Nationwide Arena was recognized by ESPN The Magazine as being the number one Stadium Experience among all 121 professional sports teams in North America. Nationwide Arena is the centerpiece of the Arena District, Columbus' newest entertainment area. This trendy section of downtown development is a unique mixture of business, entertainment and residential space that attracts a broad spectrum of tenants and visitors from across the country and North America.

Parking

There are more than 15,000 parking spaces available within a 10-minute walk of Nationwide Arena. Arena District parking facilities are adequately staffed to assist in directing traffic in and out of lots and garages. All lots and garages will be pre-pay to avoid delays in exiting.
