Faculty Disclosures

Consistent with ACPE standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, ACCP requires that all planners, reviewers, faculty/speakers, moderators, and others involved in any educational program offered for accredited CPE acknowledge and disclose any financial relationship with any ineligible companies that they have had over the past 24 months. ACPE defines ineligible companies as those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.

Consultant/Member of Advisory Board: Kaitlin Bader (Alliance for Integrated Med Management AIMM), Christie Schumacher (Dexcom, Abbott).
