

Tracy E. Macaulay, Pharm.D., BCPS-AQ Cardiology, AACC*

Cardiology Clinical Pharmacy Specialist
University of Kentucky HealthCare,
Lexington, Kentucky

Tracy E. Macaulay, Pharm.D., BCPS-AQ Cardiology, AACC is Cardiovascular Clinical Pharmacy Specialist at University of Kentucky HealthCare, Lexington, Kentucky, and Adjunct Associate Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice and Science at the University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy. Dr. Macaulay obtained her Pharm.D. from the University of South Carolina. Subsequently she completed a Postgraduate Pharmacy Practice Residency at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, and a Cardiology Specialty Residency at The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. In 2006 she joined UK HealthCare Pharmacy Services and Gill Heart Institutes as a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist-Cardiology. Over the past ten years with UKHealthCare Pharmacy Services she has held several leadership roles, including Director of Transitional Care Pharmacy Services leading and developing transitions of care programming and establishing a credentialing and privileging process for pharmacists. She remains a clinical pharmacist for Pharmacy Services, and in her current role as Director of Cardiovascular Pharmacy Services for the Gill Heart Insititue, she is responsible for providing direct patient care in a Transitions of Care ACS Clinic and leading CV transitional care improvement processes. She has experience teaching pharmacy students and residents as well as medical students, residents and CV fellows in both didactic and clinical arenas, including serving as the PGY-2 in Cardiology Pharmacy Residency Program Director.

Content matter expert