Last-Chance Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Review Webinar –
Biostatistics and Obstetrics/Gynecology

Learning Objectives

1. Describe the appropriate application of data and statistical tests commonly encountered in the literature.
2. Properly interpret data and statistical tests commonly encountered in the literature.
3. Differentiate observational and controlled trial designs
4. Detect common errors in the interpretation of clinical study designs.
5. Recommend appropriate therapy for contraception, emergency contraception, infertility, and postmenopausal therapy.
6. Apply appropriate therapy for drug therapy during pregnancy.
7. Formulate a plan to educate patients and health care professionals about medication use during pregnancy and lactation.