Updates Plus in Critical Care Pharmacy

1. Describe updates to the management of Clostridium difficile.

2. Explain therapeutic management of neuroleptic malignant syndrome and malignant hyperthermia.

3. Discuss management strategies for hereditary and acquired angioedema.

4. Apply the use of dynamic markers of fluid responsiveness to a critically ill patient case to guide fluid therapy decision making.

5. Identify appropriate patient conditions that may allow or preclude the use of certain dynamic markers of fluid responsiveness.

6. Describe the evidence for the use of balanced salt solutions compared to normal saline as a resuscitation fluid.